ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF COOPERATION
(SHRI AMIT SHAH)

(a) & (b) National Cooperative Development Corporation (NCDC), a statutory corporation under the administrative control of Ministry of Cooperation, is implementing Yuva Sahakar Scheme across the country since 2018. The scheme aims to encourage newly formed cooperative societies with new and/ or innovative ideas and provides assistance to cooperative societies that have been operational for a minimum of three months.

The project wise and State-wise details of cooperatives benefitted from the scheme so far is attached at annexure.

(c) The scheme is being promoted in all the States/UTs through promotional programmes and trainings conducted by 19 Regional Offices and Regional Training centres of NCDC.

(d) About half of the total 21 projects approved under the scheme so far are still under implementation and the projects have been sanctioned for varied economic activities like establishment of mini pulses mill, oilseed processing, agro processing, mini oil expeller, fisheries etc.
