NEW DELHI: Union home and cooperation minister Amit Shah on Tuesday launched the Sahara refund portal to begin the process of refunding claims worth ₹5,000 crore of millions of small depositors whose investments were virtually wiped out after the collapse of cooperative societies of the Sahara Group following a scam two decades ago.

The portal <https://mocre-fund.crcs.gov.in>, launched by the government, will handle claims of genuine depositors, mostly small savers, who lost their money in the scam involving the Sahara Credit Cooperative Society Limited, Saharayan Universal Multipurpose Society Limited, Hamara India Credit Cooperative Society Limited and Stars Multipurpose Cooperative Society Limited, Shah said.

The portal will handle claims of nearly 10.78 million depositors and each depositor will be able to get ₹10,000 in the first phase. Shah said, after vetting the claims, investors' refunds will be deposited into their accounts within 45 days.

THE PORTAL WILL HANDLE CLAIMS OF NEARLY 10.78MN DEPOSITORS; EACH WILL BE ABLE TO GET ₹10,000 IN THE FIRST PHASE

The refund process follows a petition moved by the Shah-led cooperation ministry in the Supreme Court on July 17 to begin repaying monies owed to depositors. The top court had on March 29 ordered refund of dues through the setting up of the so-called "Sahara-Sebi refund account" via the central registrar of cooperative societies. The government had agreed to use money lying with Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) to repay Sahara depositors. The disbursement process will be monitored by a committee comprising justice R Subhash Reddy, former judge of the Supreme Court, along with Gaurav Agrawal, amicus curiae in the Sahara case, in accordance with the top court's directions.

"The (Sahara) case went on in the SC for many years, the agencies sealed their properties and accounts, and with this, the credibility of the cooperative societies also got lost. PM Modi formed a separate ministry of cooperation and this matter was discussed extensively with all stakeholders so that genuine depositors get their money," Shah said.

To claim a refund, depositors will have to download a form from the portal and upload it with requisite documents, along with details of an Aadhaar and mobile number-linked bank account.

"A sub-panel will ensure proper identification of claimants... The complete validation and disbursement will be online and the portal will match membership details with KYC-validated bank accounts. In case of mismatches, more details will be sought..." an official said.

While the return of funds to investors is welcome, the authorities will need to do a lot more to ensure that similar scams are not repeated in the future. The Sahara saga also shows the importance of financial literacy and awareness in a country where people can often get duped in the lure of quick and easy returns. "The settlement process will be better served if the government takes over the Sebi fund since the government itself will oversee the settlement of payments monitored by the apex court," said advocate Abhay Mathur, a litigant in the case.

Union Home and Cooperation Minister Amit Shah on Tuesday launched a portal to refund the money of around four crore small-time investors of four cooperative societies linked to the Sahara group of companies.

Two Sahara Group entities are being investigated by several agencies including the Enforcement Directorate (ED) for alleged money laundering and foreign exchange rules violations.

Launching the portal on the Ministry's website, Mr. Shah said that 1.7 crore investors will benefit in the first phase and claims up to ₹10,000 will be settled first. The money will be returned to the Aadhaar-linked bank accounts of the investors within 45 days, he said.

"There are crores of people whose hard-earned money was stuck in the four cooperative societies. As investigation was ordered and properties were attached, the small-time investors were ignored. Whenever such a scam takes place, there is a multi-agency seizure and even Lord Brahma cannot lift the restrictions. This led to a feeling of distrust in the cooperative societies," Mr. Shah said.

"Small investors are hit the most. Take the example of Sahara, case dragged on for many years, several agencies seized their assets. We invited all stakeholders including SEBI, ED, CBI, SFIO. Asked, can we devise a system for the benefit of small investors? All agencies filed a petition in Supreme Court which took a landmark decision that if all agencies agree, a committee under retired SC judge will monitor the reimbursement," Mr. Shah said.

केंद्रीय सहकारिता मंत्री अमित शाह ने मंगलवार को केंद्रीय पंजीकरण-सहारा रिफंड पोर्टल की शुरुआत की, जिसे सहारा समूह की चार सहकारी समितियों के निवेशकों के दावे निपटाने के लिए किस्तित किया गया है। कार्यक्रम को संबोधित करते हुए अमित शाह ने कहा कि देश में पहली बार छोटाले में फंसा पैसा लौटाने की शुरुआत हुई है। चारों समितियों में लगभग 1.78 करोड़ ऐसे निवेशक हैं, जिनका तीस हजार रुपये तक फंसा है। आवेदन के लिए पोर्टल पर समितियों का

दावा आनलाइन उपलब्ध है। शाह ने आश्वासन दिया है कि भुगतान में किसी तरह की गड़बड़ी की गुंजाइश नहीं होगी। जिनके दावे में सत्यता नहीं होगी, उन्हें कुछ नहीं मिलेगा, लेकिन जिनकी निवेश किया है, उन्हें रिफंड मिलने से कोई रोक नहीं सकता। सिर्फ शर्त है कि निवेशक का वापस काट उसके मोबाइल एवं बैंक खाते से लिंक हो।

मोदी सरकार ने छोटे निवेशकों के बारे में सोचा : अमित शाह ने कहा कि जिनकी गाड़ी कमाई सहारा की समितियों में फंसी है, अब एक तरफ किसी का ध्यान नहीं गया। ऐसे मामलों में सहकारी समितियों पर अविश्वास होने लगा है। प्रधानमंत्री नरेन्द्र मोदी ने नाला सहकारिता मंत्रालय बनाकर विचार किया कि क्या कोई ऐसी व्यवस्था बनाई जा सकती है, जिसमें छोटे निवेशकों के बारे में भी सोचा जा सके। उसके बाद सुप्रीम कोर्ट में याचिका दायर की गई। कई वर्ष तक केस चला। समितियों की संगिनियां और खाते सील कर दिए गए। सुप्रीम कोर्ट ने 29 मार्च 2023 को सहारा-सेबी रिफंड खाते से पांच हजार करोड़ सहकारी समितियों के केंद्रीय रजिस्ट्रार को हस्तांतरित करने और समिति बनाकर भुगतान की पारदर्शी प्रक्रिया प्रारंभ करने का निर्देश दिया।
