- (a) to amalgamate with another society;
- (b) to transfer its assets and liabilities, in whole or in part to any other society;
- (c) to divide itself in it two or more societies; or
- (d) to convert itself into another class of society:

Provided that when such amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion, aforesaid, involves a transfer of the liabilities of a society to any other society, no order on the resolution shall be passed by the Registrar, unless he is satisfied that-

(i) the society, after passing such resolution, has given notice thereof in such manner as may be prescribed to all its members, creditors and other persons whose interests are likely to be affected (hereinafter, in this society referred to as “other interested persons”) giving them the option, to be exercised within one month from the date of such notice of becoming members of any of the new societies, or containing their membership in the amalgamated or converted society, or demanding payment of their share or interest or dues, as the case may be,

(ii) all the members and creditors and other interested persons, have assented to the decision, or deemed to have assented thereto, by virtue of any member or creditor or any other interested person failing to exercise his option within the specified period in clause (i) aforesaid, and

(iii) all claims of members and creditor and other interested persons, who exercise the option within the period specified, have been meet in full or otherwise satisfied.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Poverty Act, 1882, or in the Indian Registration Act, 1908, in the event of division or conversion, the registration of the new societies or, as the event of amalgamation, on the amalgamation, the resolution of the societies concerned with amalgamation, shall in each case be sufficient conveyance to vest the assets and liabilities of the original society or amalgamating societies in the new societies or converted or amalgamated society, as the case may be.

IV of 1882.

(3) The amalgamation of societies, or division or conversion of a society shall not affect any rights or obligations of the societies so amalgamated, or society so dividend or converted, or rendered defective any legal proceedings or converted; and accordingly, such legal proceedings have continued or commenced by or against the amalgamated society, or, as the case may be, the converted society, or the new societies.

(4) Where two or more societies have been amalgamated or a society has been dividend or converted, the registration of such societies or society shall be cancelled on the date of registration of the amalgamated society, or the converted society or the new societies between which the society may have been divided.

18. (1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that it is essential in the public interest or in the interest of the co-operative movement, or for the purpose of securing the proper management of any society, that two or more societies should amalgamate or any society, that two or more societies should amalgamate or any society should be organized, then notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section but subject to the provisions of this section, the Registrar may, after consulting such federal society as may be notified by the Government, by order published in the Official Gazette, provide for the amalgamation, division or reorganization of those societies into a single society, or into societies, with such constitution, property, rights, interests and authorities, and with such liabilities, duties and obligations, as may be specified in the order.

Power to direct amalgamation, division and reorganization in public interest, etc.

(2) No order shall be made under this section, unless-

(a) a copy of the proposed order has been sent in draft to the society or each of the societies concerned ; and

(b) the Registrar has considered and made such modifications in the draft order as may seem to him desirable in the light of any suggestions and objections which may be received by him within such period (not being less than two months from the date on which the copy of the order as aforesaid was received by the society) as the Registrar may fix in that behalf, either from the society, or from any member or class of members thereof, or from any creditor or class of creditors.

(3) the order referred to in sub-section (1) may contain such incidental consequential and supplemental provisions as may, in the opinion of the Registrar, be necessary to give effect to the amalgamation, the division or the re-organization.

(4) Every member of creditor of each of the societies to be amalgamated, divided or reorganized, who has objected to the scheme of amalgamation, division or reorganization, within the period specified, shall be entitled to receive, on the issue of the order of amalgamation, division or reorganization, within the period specified, shall be entitled to receive, on the issue of the order of amalgamation, division or reorganization, his share or interest if he be a member, and the amount in satisfaction of his dues, if he be a creditor.

(5) On the issue of an order under sub-section (1), the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) of section 17 shall apply to the societies so amalgamated, divided or reorganized as if they were amalgamated, divided or reorganized under that section, and to the society amalgamated, divided or reorganized.

(ii) at the instance of the Registrar, or

(iii) in the case of a society which is a member of federal society, at the instance of the committee of such federal society.

(2) Where any officer or a member of the committees, whose duty it was to call such meeting, without reasonable excuse fails to call such meeting, the Registrar may by order declare such officer or member disqualified for being a member of the committees for such period to exceeding three years, as he may specify in such order; and if the officer is servant of the society, he may impose on him a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees. Before making an order under this sub-section, the Registrar shall give or cause to be given, a reasonable opportunity to the person concerned of showing cause in regard to the action proposed to be taken against him.

(3) If a special general meeting of a society is not called in accordance with the requisition referred to in sub-section (1), the registrar or any person authorized by him in this behalf shall have power to call such meeting and that meeting shall be deemed to be a meeting duly called by the committee.

(4) The Registrar shall have power to order that the expenditure incurred in calling a meeting under sub-section (3) shall be paid out of the funds of the society or by such person or persons who in the opinion of the registrar, were responsible for the refusal or failure to convene the meeting.

78. (1) No act of a society or a committee or any officer done in good faith in pursuance of the business of the society shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of some defects subsequently discovered in the organization of the society, or in the constitution of the societies, etc., not to be invalidated

by certain

committee or in the appointment or election of an officer, or on the ground that such officer was disqualified for his office.

(2) No act done in good faith by any person appointed under this Act, the rules and the bye-laws shall be invalid merely by reason of the fact that his appointment has been cancelled by or in consequence of any order subsequently passed under this Act, rules and the bye-laws.

(3) The Registrar shall decide whether any act was done in good faith in pursuance of the business of the society; and his decision thereon shall be final.

79. (1) If, in the opinion of the Registrar, the committee of any society persistently makes default or is negligent in the performance of the duties imposed on it by this Act or the rules or the bye-laws or commits any act which is prejudicial to the interests of the society or its members, or willfully disobeys directions issued by him for the purposes of securing proper implementation of co-operative production and other development programmes approved or undertaken by Government, or is otherwise not functioning properly, the Registrar may, after giving the committee an opportunity of stating its objections (if any) within thirty days from the date of issue of notice, and after consulting the federal society to which the society is affiliated, order in writing, remove the committee; and

committee.

- (a) appoint a committee, consisting of three or more members of the society, in its place or
- (b) appoint one or more administrators, who need not be members of the society, to manage the affairs of the society for a period, not exceeding two years, specified in the order which may, at the discretion of the Registrar, be however, extended from time to time, as deemed necessary.

(2) The committee or administrator so appointed shall, subject to the control of the Registrar and to such instructions as he may from time to time give, have power to exercise all or any of the functions of the committee or of any office of the society and take all such action as may be required in the interests of the society.

(3) If at any time during any period, or extended period referred to in sub-section (1), it appears to the Registrar that it is no longer necessary to continue to carry on the affairs of the society, as aforesaid, the Registrar may, by an order published in the Official Gazette, direct that the management shall terminate; and on such order being made the management of the society shall be handed over to a new committee duly constituted.

(4) The committee or administrator shall, at the expiry or termination of it or his term of office, arrange for the constitution of a new committee in accordance with the bye-laws of the society.

(5) All acts done or purported to be done by the committee or administrator during the period the affairs of the society are carried on by the committee or administrator appointed under sub-section (1), shall be binding on the new committee.

(6) The Registrar may fix the remuneration to the administrator and any expenses of management which shall be payable out of the funds of the society within such time and at such intervals as the Registrar may fix and if such remuneration or expenses are not paid within such time, and at such intervals, the registrar may direct the person having the custody of the funds of the society to pay to the administrator such remuneration and expenses in priority to any other payment (except and amount recoverable as a public demand under the Bengal Public Demands, Recovery Act, 1913) and such person shall so far as the funds to the credit of the society allow, comply with the order of the Registrar.

80. (1) The Registrar may direct any society or class of societies, to keep proper books of accounts with respect to all sums of money received and expended by the society and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure take place, all sales and purchases of goods by the society and the assets and liabilities of the society and to furnish such statements and returns and to produce such records as he may require from time to time, and the officer or officers of the society shall be bound to comply with his order within the period specified therein.

Registrar's power to enforce performance of obligations.

(2) Where any society is required to take any action under this Act, the rules or the bye-laws, or to comply with an order made under the foregoing sub-section and such action is not taken-

- (a) within the time provided in this Act, the rules or the bye-laws, or the order, as the case may be, or
- (b) Where no time is so provided, within such time, having regard to the nature and extent of the action to be taken, as the Registrar may specify by notice in writing.

The Registrar may himself or through a person authorized by him take such action, at the expense of the society; and such expense shall be recoverable from the society as if it were a public demand under the Bengal Public demands recovery Act, 1913.

(3) Where the registrar takes action under sub-section (2) the registrar may call upon the officer or other officers of the society whom he considers to be responsible for not complying with the provisions of this Act, the rules or the bye-laws, or the order made under sub-section (1), and after giving such officer or officers an opportunity of being heard may require him or them to pay to the society the expenses paid or payable by it to the State Government as a result of their failure to take action, and to pay to the assets of the society such sum not exceeding twenty-five rupees as the registrar may think fit for each day until the Registrar's directions are carried out.

81. (1) Where the registrar is satisfied that the books and records of a society are likely to be suppressed, tampered with or destroyed, or the funds and property of a society are likely to be misappropriated or misapplied, the registrar or the person authorized by him may apply to the Executive Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the society is functioning for seizing and taking possession of the records and property of the society.

Registrar's power to seize records, etc.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the Magistrate may in a warrant authorize any police officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector, to enter and search any place where the records and property are kept or likely to be kept, and to seize them and handover possession thereof to the registrar or the person authorized by him, as the case may be.

CHAPTER VIII

Audit, Inquiry, Inspection and Supervision

82. (1) The Registrar shall audit, or cause to be audited by a person authorized by him by general or special order in writing in this behalf, the accounts of every society at least once in each year.

Audit

(2) The audit under the foregoing sub-section shall include an examination of overdue debts, if any, the verification of the cash balance and securities, and a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the society.

(3) The Registrar or the person authorized shall, for the purpose of audit, at all times have access to all the books, accounts, documents, papers, securities, cash and other properties belonging to, or in the custody of the society, and may summon any person in possession, or responsible for the custody, of any such books, accounts, documents, papers, securities, cash or other properties, to produce the same at any place at the headquarters of the society or any branch thereof.

(4) Person who is, or has at any time been, an officer or employee of the society, and every member and past member of the society, shall furnish such information in regard to the transactions and working of the society as the registrar, or the person authorized by him, may require.

(5) The auditor appointed under sub-section (1) shall have the right to receive all notes, and every communication relating to the annual general meeting of the society and to attend such meeting and to be heard thereat, in respect of any part of the business with which he is concerned as auditor.

(6) If it appears to the registrar, on an application by a society or otherwise, that it is necessary or expedient to re-audit any accounts of the society, the Registrar may by order provide for such re-audit and the provisions of this Act applicable to audit of accounts of the society shall apply to such re-audit.

(7) If at the time of audit the accounts of the society are not complete, the registrar or the person authorized by him under sub-section (1) may cause the accounts to be written up-to-date at the expense of the society.

(8) Audit fee if any due from any society shall be recoverable in the same manner as is provided in section 123.

83. If the result of the audit held under the last preceding section discloses any defects in the working of a society, the society shall within three months from the date of the audit report explain to the Registrar the defects or the irregularities pointed out by the auditor, and

ion of defects in

take steps to rectify the defects and remedy irregularities, and report to the Registrar the action taken by it thereon. The Registrar may also make an order directing the society or its officers to take such action, as may be specified in the order to remedy the defects, within the time specified therein. Where the society concerned is a member of a federal society, such order shall be made after consulting the federal society.

84. (1) The Registrar may, of his own motion, himself, or by a person duly authorized by him in writing in this behalf, hold an inquiry into the constitution, working and financial conditions of a society.

Inquiry by Registrar.

(2) The Registrar shall hold such an inquiry-

- (a) on the requisition of a society duly authorized by rules made in this behalf to make such requisition, in respect of one of its members such member being itself a society, or
- (b) on the application of a majority of the committee of a society, or
- (c) on the application of one-third of the members of society.

(3) (a) All officers, members and past members of the society in respect of which an inquiry, is held, and any other who, in the opinion of the officer holding the inquiry is in possession of information, books and papers relating to the society, shall furnish such information as in their possession and produce all books and papers relating to the society which are in their custody or and otherwise give to the officer holding an inquiry all assistance in connection with the inquiry which they can reasonably give.

(b) If any refuses to produce to the Registrar or any person authorized by him under sub-section (1), any book or papers which it is his duty under clause (a) to produce or to answer any question which is put to him by the Registrar or the person authorized by the Registrar in pursuance of sub-clause (a), the Registrar or the person authorized by the Registrar may certify the refusal and the Registrar after hearing any statement which may be offered in defence, punish the defaulter with a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees. Any sum imposed as penalty under this section shall, on the application by the Registrar or the person authorized by him, to a Magistrate having jurisdiction, be recoverable by the Magistrate having jurisdiction, be recoverable by the Magistrate as if it were a fine imposed by himself.

(4) The result of any inquiry under this section shall be communicated to the society whose affairs have been investigated.

(5) It shall be competent for the Registrar to withdraw any inquiry from the officer to whom it is entrusted, and to hold the inquiry himself or entrust it to any other person as he deems fit.

85. The Registrar, or any person, authorized by general or special order in this behalf by him, may inspect a Co-operative Society. For the purpose of inspection, the Registrar or the person so authorized by him, shall at all times have access to all books, accounts, papers, vouchers, securities, stock and other property of the society and may in the event of serious irregularities discovered during inspection take them into custody and shall have power to verify the cash balance of the society and subject to the general or special order of the registrar to call a committee meeting, general meeting. Every officer or member of the society shall furnish such information with regard to the working of the society as the Registrar or the person making such inspection may require.

86. (1) On the application of a creditor of a society who-

of books of indebted society.

- (a) satisfies the Registrar that the debt is a sum then due, and that he has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within reasonable time, and
- (b) deposits with the Registrar such sum as the Registrar may require as security for the cost of any inspection of the books of the Society.

The Registrar may, if he thinks it necessary, inspect or direct any person or persons authorized by him by order in writing in this behalf to inspect the books of the society.

(2) The Registrar shall communicate the result of any such inspection to the applicant, and to the society whose books have been inspected.

(3) It shall be competent for the Registrar to withdraw any order of inspection from the officer to whom it is entrusted, and to inspect himself or entrust it to any other person as he deems fit.

87. (1) Where an inquiry is held under section 84 or an inspection is made under the last preceding section, the Registrar may apportion the costs, or such part of the costs, he may think just, between the society, the members or creditors demanding the inquiry or inspection, the officers or former officers and the members or past members or the estates of the deceased members of the society:

Costs of inquiry and inspection.

Provided that-

- (a) no order of apportionment of the costs shall be made under this section, unless the society or persons or the legal representative of the deceased person liable to pay the costs thereunder; has or have been heard, or has or have had a reasonable opportunity of being heard;
- (b) the Registrar shall state in writing the grounds on which the costs are apportioned.

(2) No expenditure from the funds of a society shall be incurred for the purpose of defraying any costs in support of any appeal preferred by any person other than the society against an order made under the foregoing sub-section.

88. Any sum awarded by way of costs under the last preceding section, may be recovered, on an application by the Registrar to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the place where the person from whom the money is claimable resides or carries on business, and such

of costs.

Magistrate shall proceed to recover the same in the same manner as if it were a fine imposed by himself.

89. (1) If the result or any inquiry held under section 84 or an inspection made under section 85 discloses any defects in the constitution, working of financial condition or the books of a society, the Registrar may bring such defects to the notice of the society. The Registrar may also make an order directing the society or its officers to make such action as may be specified in the order to remedy the defects, within the time specified therein.

Registrar to bring defects disclosed in inquiry or inspection of notice of society.

(2) The society concerned may, within sixty days from the date of any order made by the Registrar under the foregoing sub-section, appeal against it to the State Government.

(3) The State Government may, in deciding the appeal annul, reverse, modify or confirm, the order of the Registrar.

(4) If a society fails to rectify the defects disclosed in the course of or as a result of an audit under section 82 or fails to rectify the defects as directed by the Registrar, and where no appeal has been made to the State Government within the time specified in the order, or where on appeal so made the State Government has not annulled, reversed or modified the order, the Registrar may himself take steps to have the defects rectified and may recover the costs from the officer or officers of the society who in his opinion, has or have failed to rectify the defects.

90. (1) Where, in the course of or as a result of an audit under section 82 or an inquiry under section 84 or an inspection under section 86 or the winding up of a society, the Registrar is satisfied on the basis of the report made by the auditor or the person authorized to make by the auditor or the person authorized to make inquiry under section 84 or the person authorized to inspect the books under section 86 or the Liquidator under section 109 or otherwise that any person who has taken any part in the organization or management of the society or any deceased, or past or present officer of the society has within a period of five years, prior to the date of such audit, inquiry, inspection or order for winding up, misapplied or retained, or become liable or accountable for, any money or property of the society, or has been guilty of misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the society, the Registrar or a person, authorized by him in that behalf, may frame charge against such person or persons and after giving reasonable opportunity to the person concerned and in the case of a deceased person to his representative who inherits his estate to answer the charges and make an order requiring him to repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof; with interest at such rate as the Registrar or the person authorized under this section may determine, or to contribute such sum to the assets of the society by way of compensation in regard to the misapplication, retention, misfeasance, or breach of trust, as he may determine.

Power of registrar to assess damages against delinquent promoters, etc.

(2) The registrar or the person authorized under sub-section (1) in making any order under this section may provide therein for the payment of the cost or any part thereof, as he thinks just, and he may direct that such costs or any part thereof shall be recovered from the person against whom the order has been issued.

(3) This section shall apply, notwithstanding that the act is one for which the person concerned may be criminally responsible.

91. The Registrar or the persons authorized by him, when acting under sections 84,86 or 90 shall have the power to summon and enforce the attendance of any person to give evidence or to compel the production of any document or other material object by the same means and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or the analogous law in force in the Union territory of Arunachal Pradesh.

Power to enforce attendance, etc. V of 1908.

92. (1) The State Government may constitute or recognize one or more co-operative federal authorities, in such manner as may be prescribed and subject to such conditions as the State Government may impose, for supervision of a society or a class of societies and may frame rules for making grants to such an authority.

Constitution or recognition of federal authority to supervise working of societies.

(2) The State Government may, by general or special order require a society or a class of societies to make contribution of such sum every year as may be fixed by the Registrar towards the recoupment of expenditure which the Government or any person authorized in that behalf has incurred or is likely to incur, in respect of supervision of societies.

(3) A society to which sub-section (2) is applicable shall pay to such authority such fee as may be prescribed within a reasonable time and, if it fails to pay such fee within that reasonable time, the authority may recover it as if it were a public demand under the Bengal Public Demands recovery Act, 1913.

93. (1) If the Registrar or any person authorized by him in this behalf, while making audit, inspection, inquiry or supervision as the case may be, believes or has reason to believe that the registered society is not keeping or maintaining the account books and records of society's property or finds or reasonably suspects gross negligence of duties, misappropriation or mis-use of funds of the society, irregularity in recording proceedings or keeping accounts or books, he shall have power to take possession of any of the books registers or documents, cash in hand or account books of the society and remove such seized property or keep in proper custody such seized property till it is disposed of in any manner as may be directed by the Registrar.

Power to seize records of society.

(2) The persons seizing the properties should prepare duplicate copies of inventory of the properties seized with his signature and require the officer or member from whose possession or custody the property is seized to put his signature in witness thereof and if such officer or member refuses to sign, then the person seizing the property shall call upon two or more persons to sign seizure list. A copy of the list prepared under this section signed by the witness, shall be delivered to the office of the society.

(3) The Registrar shall take immediate steps by way of audit or inspection and pass such orders as he may think fit.

(4) The Administrative head of the respective place shall give police help to all officers mentioned in sub-section (1) of this section when sought for.

CHAPTER IX

Disputes and Arbitration

94. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any dispute touching the constitution, elections of the office bearers, conduct of general meetings, management or business of society shall be referred by any of the parties to the dispute, or by a federal society to which the society is affiliated, or by a creditor of the society, to the Registrar, if both the parties thereto are one or other of the following:-

Dispute

- (a) a society, its committee, any past committee, any past or present officer, any past or present agent, any past or present servant or nominee, heir or legal representative of any deceased officer, deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or the Liquidator of the society;
- (b) a member, past member or a person claiming through a member, past member or a deceased member of a society or a society which is a member of the society;
- (c) a person other than a member of the society, who has been granted a loan by the society, or with whom the society has or had transactions under the provisions of section 46, and any person claiming through such person;
- (d) a surety of a member, past member or a deceased member or a person other than a member who has been granted a loan by the society under section 46, whether such a surety is or not a member of the society;
- (e) any other society, or the liquidator of such a society.

(2) When any question arises whether for the purposes of the foregoing sub-section, a matter referred to for decision is a dispute or not, the question shall be considered by the registrar whose decision shall be final.

(3) Save as otherwise provided under sub-section 3 of section 97, no Court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or other proceedings in respect of any dispute referred to in sub-section (1).

Explanation 1.- A dispute between the Liquidator of a society and the members of the same society shall not be referred to the Registrar under the provisions of sub-section (1).

Explanation 2.- For the purpose of this sub-section, a dispute shall include-

- (i) a claim by or against a society for any debt or demand due to it from a member or due from it to a member, past member or the nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member or servant or employee whether such a debt or demand be admitted or not;
- (ii) a claim by a surety for any sum or demand due to him from the principal borrower in respect of a loan by a society and recovered from the surety owing to the default of the principal borrower whether such a sum or demand be admitted or not;

- (iii) a claim by a society for any loss caused to it by a member, past member or deceased member, by any officer, past officer or deceased officer, by any agent, past agent or deceased agent, or by any servant, past servant or deceased servant or by its committees, past or present, whether such loss be a admitted or not;
- (iv) a refusal or failure by a member, past member or a nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member, to deliver possession to a society land or any other asset resumed by it for breach of conditions of the assignment.

95. (1) If any society is unable to pay its debt to the Apex Bank by reason of any of its members committing default in the payment of the moneys due by them or to the society, the Apex Bank may direct such society to refer to the Registrar, under section 94, the dispute between the society and the defaulting members thereof;

Power of the Apex Bank to proceed against members of the society for recovery of the money

Provided that, if such society fails to refer the dispute as a aforesaid within a period of ninety days from the date of receipt of such direction, the Apex Bank itself may refer to the Registrar the said dispute:

Provided further that, in case of a reference, the bye-laws of the defaulting society shall apply as if all reference to the society or its committee in the said bye-laws was reference to the Apex Bank.

(2) Where an Apex Bank has obtained a decree or award against any society in respect of the moneys due to it by such society, the Apex Bank may proceed to recover such moneys firstly from the assets of that society and secondly from the members of that society to the extent of the moneys due by them to that society.

96. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Limitation Act, 1963 but subject to the specific provision made in this Act, the period of limitation in the case of a dispute referred to the Registrar under the proceeding section, shall-

Limitation. XXXVI of 1963.

- (a) when the dispute relates to the recovery of any sum including interest thereon, due to a society by a member thereof, be computed from the date on which such member dies or ceases to be a member of the society;
- (b) when the dispute is between a society or its committee and any past committee, or any past or present officer, or past or present agent, or past or present servant, or the nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased officer, deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or a member, or past member of the nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member, and when the dispute relates to any act or omission on the part of either party to the dispute, be six years from the date on which the act or omission with reference to which the dispute arose, took place;

(c) when the dispute is in respect of any matter touching the constitution, management or business of a society which has been ordered to be wound up under section 106, or in respect of which a nominated committee or an administrator has been appointed under section 79, be six years from the date of the issue under section 106, or section 79, as the case may be;

(d) when the dispute is in respect of an election of an office bearer of the society, be one month from the date of the declaration of the result of the election.

(2) the period of limitation in the case of any other dispute except those mentioned in the foregoing sub-section which are required to be referred to the Registrar under the last preceding section shall be regulated by the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1963, as if the dispute were a suit, and the Registrar a Civil Court.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Registrar may admit dispute after the expiry of the limitation period if the applicant satisfies the Registrar that he had sufficient cause for not re-referring the dispute within such period and the dispute so admitted shall be a dispute which shall not be barred on the ground that the period of limitation had expired.

97. (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that any matter referred to him or brought to his notice is a dispute within the meaning of section 94, the registrar shall, subject to the rules, decide the dispute himself, or refer it for disposal to a nominee or a board of nominees, appointed by the Registrar.

Settlement
of disputes.

(2) Where any dispute is referred under the fore-going sub-section, for decision to the Registrar's nominee or board of nominees, the Registrar may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw such dispute from his nominee or board of nominees, and may decide the dispute himself, or refer it again for decision to any other nominee or board of nominees, appointed by him.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 94, the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, suspend proceedings in regard to any dispute, if the question at issue between a society and a claimant or between different claimants, is one involving complicated questions of law and fact, until the question has been tried by a regular suit instituted by one of the parties or by the society. If any such, suit is not instituted within two months from the Registrar's order suspending proceedings; the Registrar shall take action as is provided in sub-section (1).

98. (1) The Registrar, or his nominee or board of nominees, hearing a dispute under the last preceding section shall hear the dispute in the manner prescribed, and shall have power to summon and enforce attendance of witness including the parties interested or any of them and to compel them to give evidence on oath, affirmation or affidavit, and to compel the production of documents by the same means and as far as possible in the same manner, as is provided in the case of Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 or the analogous law in force in the Union territory of Arunachal Pradesh.

Procedure
for settlement
of disputes
and power of Registrar,
his nominee or board of nominees.
V of 1908.

(2) Except with the permission of the registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, no party shall be represented at the hearing of a legal practitioner.

(3) (a) If the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees is satisfied that a person, whether he be a member of the society or not, has acquired any interest in the property of a person who is a party to a dispute, he may order that the person who has acquired the interest in the property may join as a party to the dispute; and any decision that may be passed on the reference by the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees shall be binding on the party so joined, in the same manner as if he were an original party to the dispute.

(b) Where a dispute has been instituted in the name of wrong person, or where all the defendants have not been included, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees may, at any stage of the hearing of the dispute, if satisfied that the mistake was bonafide, order any other person to be substituted or added as a plaintiff or a defendant upon such terms as he thinks just.

(c) The Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the registrar, his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined whether as plaintiff or defendant or whose presence before the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees as the case may be, necessary in order to enable the registrar, his nominee or board of nominees effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the dispute, be added.

(d) Any person who is a party to the dispute and entitled to more than one relief in respect of the same cause of action may claim all or any of such relief; but if he omits to claim for all such relief's he shall not forward a claim for any relief so omitted, except with the leave of the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees.

99. (1) Where a dispute has been referred to the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under section 97 or under section 109 or where the Registrar or the person 97 or under section 109 or where the Registrar or the person authorized under section 90, hears a person against whom charges are framed under that section, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees or as the case may be, the person so authorized under section 90, if satisfied on enquiry or otherwise that a party to such dispute or against whom proceedings are pending under section 90 with intent to defeat, delay or obstruct the execution of any award or the carrying out of any order that may be made,-

award.

(a) is about to dispose of whole or any part of his property, or

(b) is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the jurisdiction of the Registrar, may unless adequate security is furnished, direct conditional attachment of the said property and such attachment shall have the same effect as if made by a competent Civil Court.

(2) Where the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees or the person authorized under section 90 direct attachment of property under the foregoing sub-section, he shall issue a notice calling upon the person whose property is so attached to furnish security which he thinks adequate within a specified period; and if the person fails to provide the security so demanded, the Registrar of his nominee or board of nominees or, as the case may be, the person authorized under section 90 may confirm the order and after the decision in the dispute or the completion of the proceeding referred to in the foregoing sub-section may direct the disposal of the property so attached towards the claim if awarded.

(3) Attachment made under this section shall not affect the rights subsisting prior to the attachment of the property of persons not parties to the proceeding in connection with which the attachment is made, or bar any person holding a decree against the person whose property is so attached from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree.

100. When a dispute is referred to arbitration, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the parties to the dispute to be heard, make an award on the dispute on the expenses incurred by the parties to the dispute in connection with the proceedings, and the fees and expenses payable to the registrar or his nominee or, as the case may be, board of nominees. Such an award shall not be invalid merely on the ground that it was made after the expiry of the period fixed for deciding the dispute by the Registrar, and shall, subject to appeal or review or revision, be binding on the parties to the dispute.

Decision of Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees.

Appeal against decision of Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees.

101. Any party aggrieved by any decision of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under the last preceding section or an order, passed under section 99 may, within two months from the date of the decision or order, appeal to the Government.

- (m) to summon and enforce the attendance of witness and compel the production of any books, accounts, documents, securities, cash or other properties belonging to or in custody of the society by the same means and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under Code of Civil Procedure, 1908;
- (n) to do all acts, and to execute in the name and on behalf of the society, all deeds, receipts and other documents, as may be necessary to such winding up;
- (o) to take such action as may be necessary under section 19, with the prior approval of the Registrar, if there is reason to believe that the society can be re-constructed.

V of 1908.

110. After expiry of the period for appeal against the order made under sub-section (1) of section 106 or where the appeal, has been dismissed the order for winding up shall be effective and shall operate in favour of all the creditors and of all the contributors of the society, as if it had been made on the joint petition of creditors and contributors. When a winding up order becomes effective the Liquidator shall proceed to realize the assets of the society by sale or otherwise, and no dispute shall be commenced or if pending at the date of the winding up order, shall be proceeded with, against the society, except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms as the Registrar may impose. The Registrar may, of his own motion, however, entertain or dispose of any dispute by or against the society.

winding up.

111. Save as expressly provided in this Act, no Civil Court shall take cognizance of any matter connected with the winding up or dissolution of a society under this Act; and when a winding up order has been made no suit or other legal proceedings shall lie or be proceeded with against the society or the Liquidator, except by leave of the Registrar, and subject to such terms as he may impose:

Bar or suit in winding up and dissolution matters.

Provided that, where the winding up order is cancelled, the provisions of this section shall cease to operate so far as the liability of the society and of the members thereof, to be sued is concerned, but they shall continue to apply to the person who acted as Liquidator.

112. (1) The Liquidator shall, during his tenure of office, at such times as may be prescribed, but not less than twice each year, present to the Registrar an account in the prescribed form of his receipts and payments as Liquidator. The Registrar shall cause the accounts to be audited in such manner as he thinks fit, and for the purpose of audit, the Liquidator shall furnish the Registrar with such vouchers and information as he, or the person appointed by him, may require.

Audit of Liquidator's accounts.

(2) The Liquidator shall cause a summary of audited accounts to be prepared, and shall send a copy of such summary to every contributory.

(3) The Liquidator shall pay such fees as the Registrar may direct for the audit of the accounts and books kept by him in the manner prescribed.

(4) The Liquidator shall be held liable for any irregularities which might be discovered in the course or as a result of audit in respect of transactions subsequent to his taking over the affairs of the society and may be proceeded against as if it were an act against which action could be taken under section 90:

Provided that, no such action shall be taken unless the irregularities have caused or are likely to cause loss to the society, and have occurred due to gross negligence or want or omission, in carrying out the duties and functions.

113. (1) The winding up proceedings of a society shall be closed within three years from the date of the order of the winding up, unless the period is extended by the Registrar;

Termination of liquidation proceedings.

Provided that the Registrar shall not grant any extension for a period exceeding one year at a time and four years in the aggregate, and shall immediately after the expiry of seven years from the date of the order for winding up of the society, deem that the liquidation proceedings have been terminated, and pass an order terminating the liquidation proceedings.

Explanation:- In the case of a society which is under liquidation at the commencement of this Act, an order for the winding up of the society shall be deemed for the purpose of this section to have been passed on the date of such commencement.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-section the Registrar shall terminate the liquidation proceedings on receipt of the final report from the Liquidator. The final report of the Liquidator shall state that the liquidation proceedings of the society have been closed and how the winding up has been conducted and the property of and the claims of the society have been disposed of and shall include a statement showing a summary of the account of the winding up including the cost of liquidation the amount (if any) standing to the credit of the society in liquidation, after paying of its liabilities including the share or interest of members, and suggest how the surplus should be utilized.

(3) The Registrar, on receipt of the final report from the Liquidator, shall direct the Liquidator to convene a general meeting of the members of the society for recording his final report.

114. The surplus assets, as shown in the final report of the Liquidator of a society which has been wound up, may either be divided by the registrar, with the previous sanction of the Government, amongst its members in such manner as may be prescribed or be devoted to any object or objects provided in the bye-laws of the society, if they specify that such surplus shall be utilized for both the purposes. Where the surplus is not so divided among the members and the society has no such bye-law, the surplus vest in the registrar, who shall hold it in trust and shall transfer it to the reserve fund of a new society registered with a similar object, and serving more or less an area which the society to which the surplus belonged was serving:

Disposal of surplus assets.

Provided that, where no such society exists or is registered within three years of the cancellation of the society whose surplus is vested in the registrar, the Registrar may distribute the surplus, in the manner he thinks best among any or all of the following:

- (a) an object of public utility and of local interest as may be recommended by the member in general meeting held under the preceding section;
- (b) a federal society with similar objects to which the cancelled society was eligible for affiliation or, where no federal society exists, the territory level federal society which may be notified in this behalf by the State Government; and
- (c) any charitable purpose as defined in section 2 of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890.

VI of 1890.

115. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,-

- (i) order for the winding up, or an order sanctioning a scheme of compromise or arrangement or amalgamation or reconstruction of an insured Co-operative Bank cannot be made save with the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank of India;
- (ii) an order for the winding up of an insured Co-operative Bank shall be made if so required by the Reserve Bank of India in the circumstances referred to in section 13D of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961;
- (iii) if so required by the Reserve bank of India in the public interest or for preventing the affairs of an insured Co-operative Bank from being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interest of the depositors or for securing the proper management of such Bank, an order shall be made for the suppression of the managing body by whatever name called, of such Bank and for the appointment of an administrator for five years in the aggregate, as may from time to time be specified by the Reserve Bank of India;

Order for winding up of insured Co-operative Bank, etc. not to be made without sanction of Reserve Bank of India. XL VII of 1961.

- (iv) an order for winding up of an insured Co-operative Bank or an order sanctioning a scheme or compromise or arrangement or of amalgamation or reconstruction or an order for the supersession of the managing body, by whatever name called, of such Bank and appointment of an administrator therefore, made with the previous sanction in writing or on requisition of the Reserve Bank of India shall not be liable to be called in question in any manner; and
- (v) the liquidator or the insured Co-operative Bank or the transferee Bank, as the case may be, shall be under an obligation to repay to the Deposit Insurance Corporation established under section 3 (1) of the deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 in the circumstances, to the extent and in the manner referred to in section 21 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961.

XLVII of 1961.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this section, an “insured Co-operative Bank” means a society which is an insured Bank as defined under the provisions of the deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961.

XLVII of 1961.
